

Conflicts of Interest Policy

This policy applies to the trustees/contractors/volunteers working for the benefit of Musical Connections.

Trustees/contractors/volunteers have a legal obligation to act in the best interests of Musical Connections, in accordance with Musical Connections' governing document, and to avoid situations where there may be a potential conflict of interest.

Conflicts of interest may arise where an individual's personal or family interests and/or loyalties conflict with those of Musical Connections. Such conflicts may create problems; they can:

- Inhibit free discussion
- Result in decisions or actions that are not in the interests of Musical Connections
- Risk the impression that Musical Connections has acted improperly.

The aim of this policy is to protect both the organisation and the individuals involved from any appearance of impropriety.

The declaration of interests

Accordingly, we ask trustees, contractors and volunteers to declare their interests. A declaration of interest form is available for this purpose, listing the types of interest that should be declared. In cases of uncertainty, the chair should be contacted for confidential guidance. This register of interests shall be used to record the following received by trustees, contractors and volunteers:

Interests and gifts will be recorded on the charity's register of interests, which will be maintained by the chair.

Data protection

The information provided will be processed in accordance with data protection principles as set out in the General Data Protection Regulation 2018. Data will be processed only to ensure that trustees, contractors and staff act in the best interests of Musical Connections. The information provided will not be used for any other purpose.

What to do if faced with a conflict of interest

If a trustee/contractor/volunteer believes they have a perceived or real conflict of interest they should:

- Declare the interest at the earliest opportunity
- Withdraw from discussions and decisions relating to the conflict.

In this case, they may not participate in, or influence, the decision or any vote on the matter. They will not be counted in the quorum for that part of the meeting and must withdraw from the meeting during any vote on the conflicted item.

All decisions under a conflict of interest will be recorded and reported in the minutes of the meeting. The report will record:

- The nature and extent of the conflict
- An outline of the discussion
- The actions taken to manage the conflict.

Where a trustee benefits from the decision, this will be reported in the annual report and accounts in accordance with the current Charities SORP.
